

Eel River Valley is a sea of water as flood waters swept over farmlands and roadways near Ferndale. Damage is extensive as farmers seek to save dairy herds caught in the torrent. Gale winds and heavy rain continue to sweep the area.