

British Crown Colony of Hong Kong. More about this interesting port will follow in my next Familygram.

In closing may I say that my pride in BENNINGTON and her crew increases with each operation completed, and each port visited.

Faithfully and Sincerely yours,

John S. Hill

P.S. Here is a shot of BENNINGTON moored at the fuel pier in Sasebo, Japan. In the lower right of the picture is the submarine SEAFOX berthed alongside BENN.
